MONTHLY RATE

For the first 60 consecutive billing months of electric service under this Rider, the Monthly Rate for Customer's total load shall be the amount computed under the rate schedule and any applicable riders specified in the Service Agreement less the following Adjustment:

$$\text{Adjustment} = \frac{(60 - N)}{60} \times (\text{RS} - \text{SGSTOU})$$

Where: N = number of months Customer has received electric service under this Rider.

RS = the monthly billing under the rate schedule and riders specified in the Service Agreement for the current billing month.

SGSTOU = the monthly billing for the current billing month had Customer been provided service under Small General Service (Time-of-Use) Schedule SGS-TOU including any riders specified in the Service Agreement that are applicable to Schedule SGS-TOU. The maximum limitations on the Contract Demand and the registered or computed demand in the Availability provision of Schedule SGS-TOU are ignored for the purpose of determining the monthly billing.

The Adjustment shall not be less than zero.

CONTRACT PERIOD
