

See Your Future in a New Light.

Better careers. Better locations.

Internship Opportunities

Progress Energy also offers internships in the areas of:

Information Technology

- Application Development: Updating applications, assisting with testing, documentation, and/or web development, infrastructure support, and supporting business applications.
- Nuclear Information Technology: Supporting process systems design engineering and operations related to the Nuclear Generation Group.
- Business Technology: Technology support for various businesses across the enterprise
- Telecommunications Services: Telecom projects and implementation services, maintenance and support.

Finance and Accounting

- Budgeting, business planning, cost management, analytical support, financial reporting and general accounting for various business units within Progress Energy
- Budget entry, revenue and expense variance analysis, self assessment of processes, journal entry preparation, and general ledger account reconciliations
- Monthly, quarterly, and annual reporting requirements
- Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and enhance regulatory compliance

Corporate Communications

- Production of internal and external company communications
- Monitoring communication channels
- Assist in Progress Energy's marketing and advertising initiatives

Supply Chain

- Assist with supply chain management process improvements
- Process mapping and creating documentation materials
- Supplier Diversity

Opportunities also available in Human Resources, Legal, and other business fields.